

STEAMANIA at Wisconsin State Fair

Wisconsin State Fair is inviting local youth to demonstrate/display their top-notch STEAM projects in the Youth Expo Hall during the 2019 Wisconsin State Fair, presented by U.S. Cellular, August 1 to 11! This fantastically fun opportunity will allow talented youth a venue to showcase and promote their projects to the more than one million Fairgoers who attend the annual Fair.

Who: Open to Youth Organizations/School Programs with high quality STEAM projects. (Future Cities, PLTW, Lego First, Rube Goldberg, etc.)

Where: YOUTH EXPO HALL – Wisconsin State Fair

When: STEAMania Dates: Friday, August 2
 Saturday, August 3
 Tuesday, August 6
 Saturday, August 10

Youth Benefit Opportunities: Showcase top-notch STEAM projects
 Enhance Public presentation skills
 Experience Wisconsin State Fair
 Interact with other STEAM enthusiasts

Supplies:

State Fair will provide two headset microphones, a demonstration table/area, an easel and one 3-pronged electrical outlet.

Demonstrators must provide all additional materials needed for a successful demonstration. Due to a challenging lighting environment, AV equipment (slideshows or power point) and projects requiring controlled light are discouraged. A portable TV may be available if requested in advance.

Selection Process:

Submit application along with a photo of the project by May 31.
Selected applicants will be contacted via mail by June 15.
Final registration must be submitted to Wisconsin State Fair by June 30.
Participating youth will receive complimentary Wisconsin State Fair admission.

For more information on STEAMania contact Liz Dworak, Youth Expo Coordinator, at 414.750.0872 or by email at youthexpo@wistatefair.com.
