

2019 Wisconsin State Fair YOUTH EXPO

Clothing Revue Youth Participant Information

Youth who have created high quality clothing are encouraged to participate in the Wisconsin State Fair Clothing Revue program. Youth will have an opportunity to participate in style revues where they model their clothing and attend educational sessions to further enhance their poise and modeling skills. Through this experience, youth will also further develop their leadership and communication skills while enjoying the Fair.: Youth do not need to qualify through County Clothing Revues to participate!

A. Qualifications

- 12-19 years of age at time of Fair. All ages and abilities welcome!
- Have a sewn, crocheted, knitted, or otherwise constructed article to wear. Consumer savvy projects are not accepted. Garment must not have been shown in a previous Wisconsin State Fair.
- Have an interest in learning about modeling, style, and poise.
- Enthusiastic and dependable.
- Have no other responsibility at Wisconsin State Fair during assigned period.
- Be a member in good standing with an approved Wisconsin youth organization. These organizations are 4-H, FFA, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts.

B. Responsibilities

- Carefully read all pre-Fair correspondence.
- Participate daily in all designated program activities.
- Report any suggestions or challenges to the Clothing Revue Coordinators.
- Selected youth cannot participate in other State Fair activities during the same period as it is a full day experience (8:30 am to 8 pm).

C. Participation Fees

All participants must complete a Tommy G. Thompson Youth Center Registration form to receive a wristband, which covers Fair admission, lodging, and three meals per day in the Youth Center. All participants must pay a $25 per night Youth Center Fee. Do not send in Youth Center fees with the application form. Youth Center fees will be submitted with the final registration materials sent in June.

D. Judging and Awards

Participants are evaluated on style, modeling, garment composition and personality. Merit and participation awards are based on the judge's evaluation. Youth participating at Wisconsin State Fair in the multi-day Clothing Revue program will receive prize money of $40.
